Scavenger Hunt

On each mini-car, a small image of a colt has been hidden. Note the color of the colt for each of the twenty-two mini cars and you will be entered for an opportunity to win one of the painted colts from the Swope's 2008 project.

The colors are red, black, green, blue and pink.

Entries must be received by 4:00 pm Friday, December 3 at the Swope Art Museum, 25 S 7th Street, Terre Haute, IN 47807.

Cruising Around... in Terre Haute

A Public Art Experience

The Swope Mini-cars were designed and painted by local artists for a variety of businesses, institutions and organizations. Each one is a unique design that reflects the personality of the creator and/or the sponsor who chose it. The community is invited to visit each one to see all the details.

Send photographs of a visit to the mini-cars to info@swope.org for inclusion on the Swope blog or Facebook page.

Mission Statement:

The Sheldon Swope Art Museum exists to collect, preserve, exhibit, and interpret the best of American art, with special emphasis on painting and sculpture of the first half of the twentieth century and on Wabash Valley artists past and present.

Mission Statement adopted by the Joint Boards on January 15, 1996.
